O. U. R. WILL EXTEND SOON

But First Legal Tangle Over St. Louis Must Be Straightened Out

That the Oklahoma Union Railway company will shortly commence its extension of Eleventh street east was the opinion expressed Friday by Harry Campbell, one of the company attorneys. At present there is a legal tangle over the removal of tracks on St. Louis avenue and this, according to Campbell, must be settled before further construction work is begun.

A motion for a rehearing has been filed with the supreme court on its order for the Oklahoma Union to re-locate its tracks on St. Louis. That street has been paved to a width of 26 feet—too narrow for a car line—and in addition property owners are apparently content to let the situation remain as at present.

Mayor H. F. Newblock and the city commissioners have indicated that they are favorable to the Eleventh street extension and will not oppose the Oklahoma Union's extension project.

Dinner Stories.
Johnson had been prosecuted for a rather doubtful offense.

"Jim Johnson," said the judge in his severest tone, "the jury has taken a very lenient view of the case. You have had a very narrow escape and it should be a lifelong warning to you. After this you ought to keep away from bad company."

"Yes, yer honor," replied Johnson. "Ya won't find me here again in a hurry." — San Francisco Chronicle.
